A Bit Too Far From Home

Words and Music by Grant Simpson

He headed South
He slammed the door
Leavin' for those notions
That don't matter anymore
Now he's stuck in some apartment
Dreaming of the midnight dome
That Yukon boy's a bit too far from home

She broke the mold
And headed North
Now her family's far away
That she's travelin' back and forth
And she sits inside her cabin
With an urgent need to roam
That Yukon girl's a bit too far from home

Leaving's only one way
To leave behind the past
It seemed too good to last
Anyway
Believing maybe one day
it will all be crystal clear
Like the mournful I hear
When you play

She settled down
On the coast
Living life romantic
Doin what she loves the most
And he finally got the meaning
Of that Robert Service Poem
That Yukon Boy is headed back for home

They keep in touch
Once in a while
When she thinks of him and he thinks of her
It's enough to make them smile
And there's much anticipation
Every time they hear the phone
That Yukon Boy and that Roaming Girl
Spend too much time alone
